Homecoming 1983

Although the fall weather was its usual cold, brisk self, loyal Eagle fans packed the stands to see their Pride and Joy rumble against their most fearsome foe — Olivet Nazarene. The first half was a bitter fight between the two teams with the halftime score being 7-0. The Eagle squad gave it their all but couldn't pull it out in the end. The halftime festivities included the IBC pom pon and cheerleading squads and the climactic announcement of the Homecoming court with Mike Cooney and Tracy Sablick reigning as king and queen. That evening couples enjoyed a dance at the elegant Radison Hotel in downtown Chicago.

Between a Mother and a Daughter

On Sunday, October 24, the mothers and daughters of IBC shared a beautiful day at the annual Mother-Daughter Brunch. The day began with a lovely mass at St. Procopius Abbey during which the daughters presented their moms with a corsage as a sign of their love. Following mass, a brunch was served in the cafeteria by SAGA. The event was sponsored by the Ondrak Hall government — Annamarie Glynn, Susan Rozner, Kathy Shea and Ann Marie Bednarski.

Well, Graduate . . .
There've been hard times
Good times,
Nights you thought you'd
go crazy,
Days you were sure would never end.
Joy and Sorrow,
Agony and Ecstasy,
The worst of times,
The best of times,

And that was all just dating on the weekends!

Senior Picnic

On Saturday May 14, 1983 the senior board planned a farewell picnic for the Class of '83. Despite cold rainy weather, fun was had by all. Hotdogs, beer and music provided by Tom Lehayne topped off the day.

Ninetieth Commencement Convocation

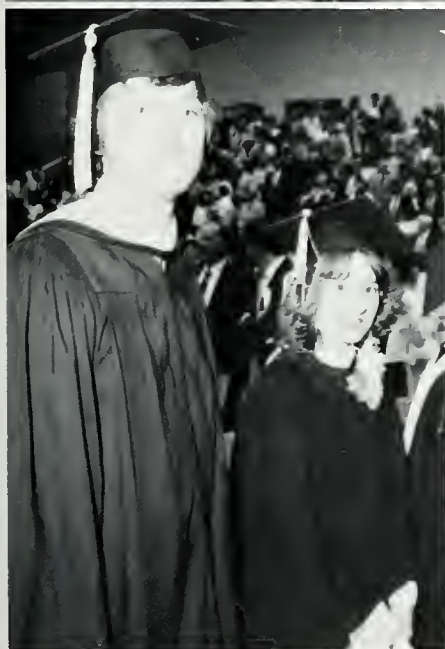

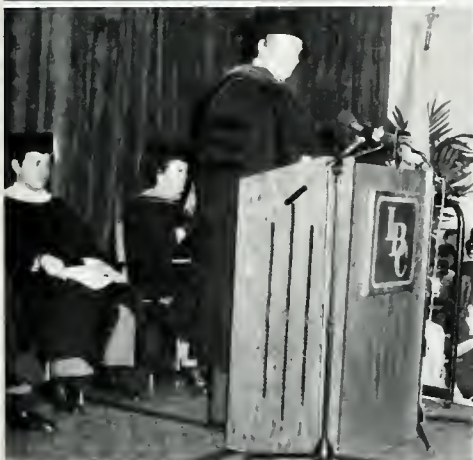

DAN AND ADA RICE CENTER
SUNDAY, MAY 22, 1983
1:00 P.M.

The Ninetieth Commencement of Illinois Benedictine College was celebrated on May 22, 1983 at the Dan and Ada Rice Center with Abbot Valentine conferring degrees.

The college's largest graduating class elected Dimitra Kanellopoulou senior class speaker. She addressed her fellow graduates with the idea that we are family-students, faculty, administration — in that we share our life together. Commencement speaker, Tom Sheridan, staff writer for the Chicago Sun Times, challenged us to continue that sharing through love, laughter, and care for ourselves and our world.

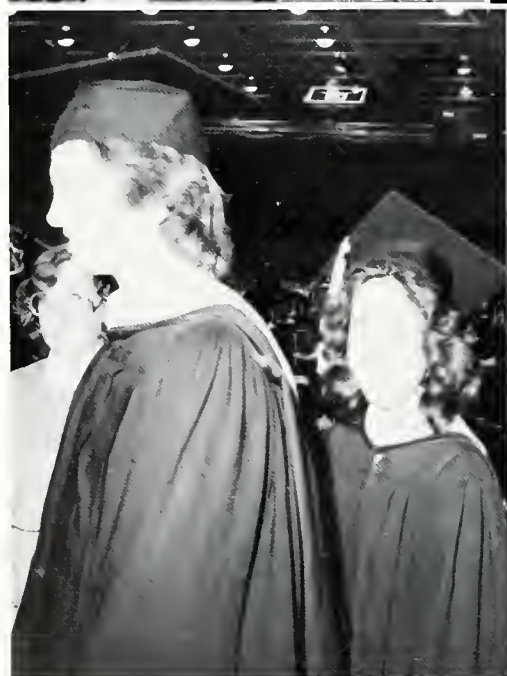

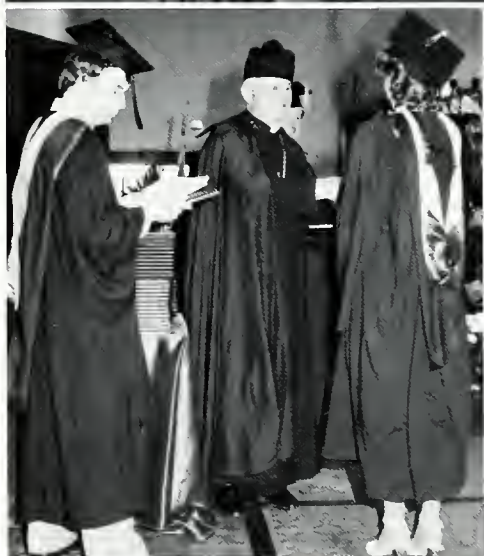

Dr. Richard Becker served as presider; Sr. Benita Jasurda, O.S.B. closed the ceremony with Benediction. Tunes by Marchese.

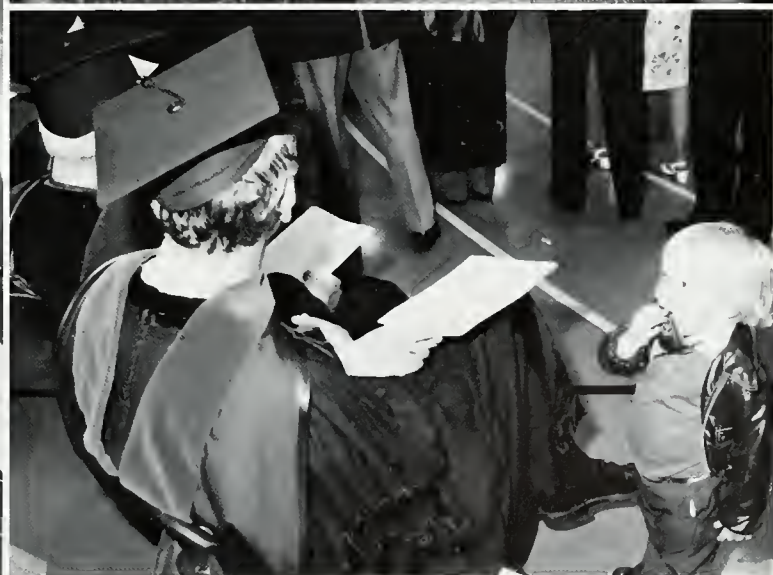

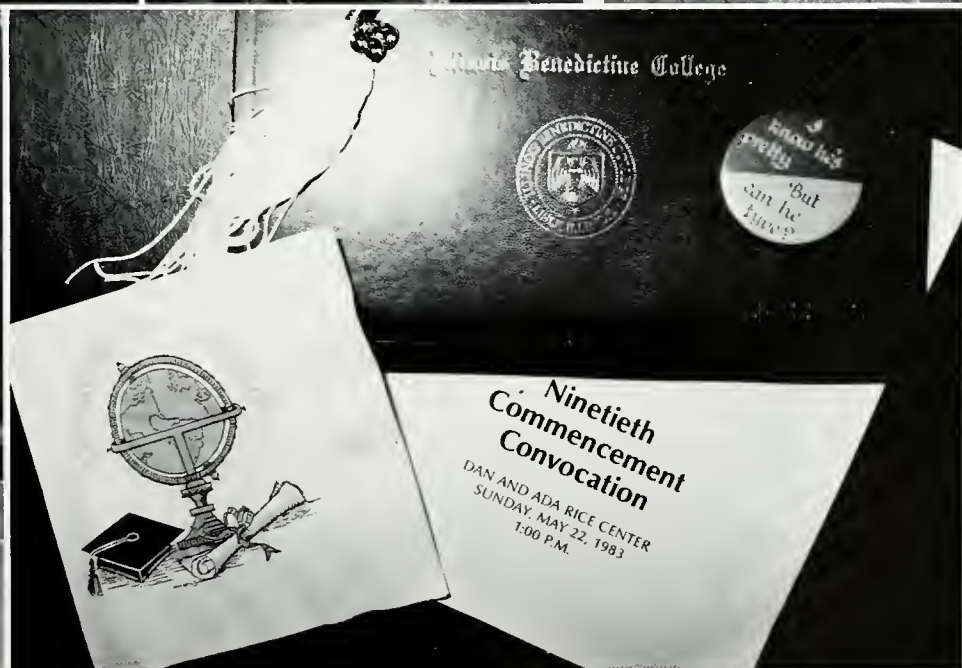

In Memoriam

This Prayer of Thanksgiving was written by Jill one year ago on the occasion of her Grandmother's funeral.

We thank you, God, for this woman who was so near and dear to us, and who has now been taken from us.

We thank you that through suffering she learned obedience and that she became a person others could love while she was with us here on earth.

We pray that nothing of this woman's life will be lost but that it will be of benefit to the world; that all that she held sacred may be respected by those who follow her and that everything in which she was great may continue to mean much to us now that she is dead.

We ask you that she may go on living in our hearts and minds, in our courage and conscience.

We ask that we, who were associated with her may now, because of her death, be even more closely associated with each other and that we may, in this togetherness and peace and friendship here on earth always be deeply conscious of your promise to be faithful to us in death.

With the closing of this yearbook, I would like to thank everyone who helped me since I took over the editorship in December — we went through a lot. Thanks to Faye, Kathy, Keenie, Lisa, Peggy and Sully for helping even after graduation. Special thanks goes to Mindie Bright for all her extra help. Without her and my staff this wouldn't have been possible.
